

Leitmeritz

country:	Czech Republic
region:	Ústecký kraj
district:	Litoměřice
area:	18 sqkm
population:	25.517 (2006)
population density:	1.418 inhabitants per sqkm website:	radnice.litomerice.cz
mayor:	Ladislav Chlupáč

Signing of city partnership on November 1st 1996

Leitmeritz, famous for its pictorial position and the great architecture, belongs to the most beautiful cities of the Bohemian countryside. Like Meissen, Leimeritz is situated on the river Elbe, has a listed old town and is also situated in a wine growing area.

Short chronicle

8th century First Slav settlement
993 recorded province of Leitmeritz

Economy

- building trade is the most important branch of industry
- most occurrences:
 - o electrical engineering
 - o tiler companies
 - o roofer
- services:
 - o banking
 - o insurances

Culture and sights

- St. Stephan's Cathedral on Cathdral Hill
- „Kelchhaus“ with the „Hussitenkelch“ on the roof
- City Tower (oldest building) with the City Church „Allerheiligen“
- town hall in the style of Renaissance
- „Black Eagle“ and the „Broggio- House“
- „Jesuiten Church“ (containing an art gallery)

