

Provo

country:	USA
federal state:	Utah
area:	108,2 sqkm
inhabitants:	111.718 (2005)
population density:	1.025 inhabitants per sqkm website:	www.provo.org
mayor:	Lewis K. Billings

Signing of city partnership on July 14th 2001

Provo is the seat of the Brigham Young University, whose first principal as well as Superintendent of the Latter Day Saints Church-Education-System was Karl G. Maeser from Meissen. It is 80km away from the former Olympic City Salt Lake City.

Short chronicle

- 1849 foundation of the city under the name Fort Utah
- 1850 renaming into Provo

Economy

- US - American High-tech-Firm, Novell Inc.
 - o Network- und Internet-Software-Products with 5.200 employees
- Tahitian Noni International, Inc.
 - o Cosmetics- and food production

Culture and Sights

- Brigham Young University
- Provo Utah Temple
- Seven Peaks Resort Water Park
- Monte L. Bean Life Science Museum – museum of natural sciences
- Brigham Young Univ. Earth Sciences Museum – museum of dinosaurs

